

You can also enjoy on zoom

Nerima Community and Cultural Affairs

RAKUGO

in Japanese and English

The following three stories will be performed by Sanyutei Koseinen in Japanese and Eiraku in English.

TITLES A Smart Boy
Gonbei and a Raccoon Dog
Yawning Class

2021
〈Date/Time〉 August 22 (Sun.) 2:00~4:00pm

〈Plase〉 Coconeri 3F Coconeri Hall

〈Access〉Two minute-walk from Nerima Station, North Exit
Seibu-Ikebukuro Line, Yurakucho Line,
Fukutoshin Line, Oedo Line

〈Fee〉 zoom 1,000 yen /adult
In person 500 yen

〈How to apply〉 Please email at "office@cscafe.net"

The performance is held at Coconeri Hall, and its live streaming with Zoom is available. If you wish to join this performance via Zoom, please state accordingly. You will be notified of a payment method and then the Zoom URL will be provided.

Sanyutei Koseinen Real name: Johan Nilsson Björk
He studied Japanese at Stockholm University in Sweden. While studying at Nanzan University and Chuo University from 2010 to 2013, he encountered Rakugo. He became an apprentice of Sanyutei Koraku in 2016 and was named Jubei. He was promoted to Futatsume in Aug 2020, and given a new name 'Koseinen'. He wants to perform rakugo in English and Japanese, both in Japan and in the rest of the world.

Kanariya Eiraku
English Rakugo Storyteller.
He joined Rakugo Tatekawa-ryu in 1984. He started Rakugo classes in 1991, and English Rakugo classes in 2007. In Japan he performs at schools, hotels, and international organizations such as JICA and UNESCO. He has performed in the United States, the United Kingdom, Denmark, Australia, New Zealand, Georgia, Kazakhstan, and Laos. He also teaches at Kanda University of International Studies and Komazawa University.

Culture & Science Cafe 〈ぶんかサイエンスカフェ〉

Please apply by E-mail office@cscafe.net

HP:cscafe.net Telephone:090-1771-0901

(Ms.Ito)

